Services were also held in the Gospel tent in the variof the cli Court House, Rov. W. K. Bayle, of the M. E. Church South, Preaching an interesting sermon.

UHILDREN'S DAY AT THE M. E. CHURCH. The observance of children's day at the M. E. Church yesterday attracted a pretty full audionce, notwithstanding the oppressively warm seather. The floral display was somewhat elaborate, and is said to be the very finest seen in that courch for several years. The special service was held at 3 p. m. The duets and eneruses, prepared specially for this occasion, under the direction of Miss Mamie Clarke, the Sanday rehool organist, were devout in senti-Washington sang an appropriate solo in such a char, sweet voice as to win the hearts of all who heard him. An interesting review service was enducied by Mr. Oscar F. Buggett and a poem gentlman, scholar, and jurist, and whose charman rendered by Mrs. L. H. Peares. Perhaps the most impressive part of the exercises was the haptism of Children by the paster. B fore the close of the meeting all the children of the Sunday school murched over the puipit platfirm, and each deposited on the table a small banquet, containing a piece of money, as chil-dren's day's effering. Mr. Baggett had charge of the entire service. At night Mr. Peaces, reached a sermon on "The Irresistable Boy."

OFFICE ALEXA. GAS WORKS, Room No. 5, Mark. B'dg., Royal st. front, Alexandria, Vs., June 23, 1830. Gas consumers will observe that by an act of Council the price of gas has been reduced from $2 25 to $2 with 10 per ct off, making the gas $1 80 and after the 15th of June, 1880. Consumers will therefore take notice that to be entitled to the discount they must settle their bills by the 15th of the month succeeding the taking of the register of the meters, which is done on the 15th of the preceding month; therefore all bills paid on or before the 15th of July will be at the rate of $2.00, ten per cent off. Consumers who may be in arreers will not be entitled to the Augustian of the contract of the c be in arrears will not be entitled to the banefit of this act until all arrearages are paid.

The bills will be delivered in a few days, and I shall be pleased to receive payment upon presentation. But it will be impossible for me to call the second time between the delivery of the bills and the 15th of July, so consumers who do not pay me on presentation will pay at the office; and I hope no ene will ask me to take off the discount after the time has expired, as I cannot do it.
